The author picked up some key dialogues from The Guru Granth sahib, The Sikh Holy Scripture. He then compared these teachings with the theme "Mool Mantar" of the Sikh Holy Scripture to convey spiritual meanings. This book rises above the traditional religious rituals. This book highlights the path adopted by saints to conquer three virtues of worldly wealth to become worthy of His consideration. No one can fully describe the true purpose and meanings of any word written in this Holy Scripture. Only, The Omniscient Creator fully knows His creation. All universes are expansion of His Holy Spirit and He remains embedded in each and every creature, nature and events. Guru Aurjan Dev Ji, 5th guru had compiled the life experience of 25 Prophets from various religions and time periods. The book is the steek in Punjabi and English of Page (151 - 346) of Guru Granth Sahib out of total pages 1430 - Volume 2. The purpose of steek of Guru Granth Sahib in Punjabi and English combined in one book is to guide new generation who may not be able to read Punjabi; may be enlightened with path, blessed souls adopted to be sanctified and to be on the right path of salvation, acceptance in His Court.

In Volume Four of “It Is The Same Light” series (SGGS pages 601-800), author Daljit Singh Jawa continues to share the beauty of the SGGS with those who have limited familiarity with the language (Gurumukhi), history, or context. The following are some of the comments received on volume 1 of this series. “This translation of Guru Granth Sahib is one of the best English translations in my view, as it is in simple understandable English, each shabad’s summary message is given, there is connection between the shabads to reveal continuity of thought process in Guru ji’s message. Thanks to S Daljit Singh ji for the great work which will benefit future generations understand Guru Ji’s message easily.” -Amarjit Singh, M.D., University at Buffalo, Buffalo, New York “A monumental undertaking, reflecting a lifetime of devotion to the Sri Guru Granth Sahib and to the scholarly study of its voluminous texts. Both its rendition of the original Gurmukhi script, with accompanying English transliteration, and its erudite commentary on each of the Granth’s many hymns mark this work as a stunning achievement which will benefit all serious students of the Sikh religion and of world religions in general.” -Barry Crawford, Ph.D., Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas

Preface - There are a number of quotes throughout this book cited from the early sources including the Bhai Gurdas Vaaran & Kabitt, Rehatnamas, Bhai Nand Lal's ghazals and as well with interspersing of quotes from Sri Guru Granth Sahib Ji, Sri Dasam Granth Sahib Ji and Sri Sarabloh Granth Sahib Ji. Along with this, we have also included Sufi theology, various Greek, Egyptian and Chinese scholars' quotes. The Punjabi meanings has been largely utilized from Dasam Guru Granth Sahib Steek by Pandit Narain Singh Giani with some omissions and additions. The primary text of Akaal Ustat has been taken from the personal prayer book (Gutka) of Baba Deep Singh Ji Shaheed, the first Jathedar of Damdami Taksal & Damdama Sahib is currently kept at Takht Sri Damdama Sahib, Sabo Ki Talwandi. The text in this Gutka and the one of Baba Jit Singh Ji's Gutka, the second Jathedar of Damdama Sahib is almost similar. Further, the calligraphy of this manuscript with Baba Ji's written Sri Guru Granth Sahib Ji present at Takht Sahib is similar, making it a reliable source. In order to make it more relevant to this day and science, there has been an amalgamation of physics, metaphysics, cosmology and astronomy to create a holistic approach in understanding some core principles and makes the readers contemplate on the intellectual brilliance of Guru Gobind Singh Ji. A plethora of history has been supplied with relevance to the Akaal Ustat in order to make this a concise reference book.

This book examines three closely related questions in the process of canon formation in the Sikh tradition: how the text of the Adi Granth came into being, the meaning of gurbani, and how the Adi Granth became the Guru Granth Sahib. The censure of scholarly research on the Adi Granth was closely related to the complex political situation of Punjab and brought the whole issue of academic freedom into sharper focus. This book addresses some of these issues from an academic perspective. The Adi Granth, the sacred scripture of the Sikhs, means 'first religious book' (from the word 'adi' which means 'first' and 'granth' which means 'religious book'). Sikhs normally refer to the Adi Granth as the Guru Granth Sahib to indicate a confession of faith in the scripture as Guru. The contents of the Adi Granth are commonly known as bani (utterance) or gurbani (the utterance of the Guru). The transcendental origin (or ontological status) of the hymns of the Adi Granth is termed dhur ki bani (utterance from the beginning). This particular understanding of revelation is based upon the doctrine of the sabad, or divine word, defined by Guru Nanak and the succeeding Gurus. This book also explores the revelation of the bani and its verbal expression, devotional music in the Sikh tradition, the role of the scripture in Sikh ceremonies, and the hymns of Guru Nanak and Guru Arjan.

There is no doubt, that one's environment, upbringing, family stability, health, job satisfaction, and even living in the right country contributes towards one's success & happiness. But beyond all that, it all starts with being in an ever-present uplifted positive state of mind, and being in touch with one's inner self. So, understanding one's own 'mind', regular self analysis and looking within, are triggers for outward progress in life, success and happiness. Dya Singh has provided some insights on this subject from his diverse background. He is of north Indian (Punjabi) origin, born into a Sikh family (his father was a spiritual minstrel and teacher) and was brought up in multicultural Malaysia. He was educated in English and has spent all his adult life in England and Australia. He has, over the last 25 years, taken his musical group around the globe singing in his native Gurmukhi and espousing the truths towards a better life to mainstream (mainly 'western') and Sikh audiences / congregations. Within this book are some startling 'secrets' to help anyone towards success and happiness.

Sri Guru Granth Sahib is generally known as the holy scripture of Sikhism, the world's fifth largest religion. But this holy scripture is neither a storybook nor just the philosophy of the Sikh saints or prophets. It is more like a collection of divine revelations and hymns, expressing the feelings of love and devotion of the Sikh Gurus for the Supreme Being, along with the similar yearnings and longings of the devotees and saints from all faiths prevalent in Indian subcontinent during those times. The beauty of this 1430 page hymnal written in 22 different languages lies in the fact that while it spiritually connects the human mind to the original source of eternal bliss, it provides a very practical and effective way to live in love and harmony with other fellow human beings irrespective of their faith, color, caste, creed, or race. The following are a few examples of the views of eminent writers and scholars regarding Sri Guru Granth Sahib: “Mankind’s religious future may be obscure, yet one thing can be foreseen. The living higher religions are going to influence each other more than ever before, in the days of increasing communications between all parts of the world and branches of the human race. In this coming religious debate, the Sikh religion and its scriptures, the Sri Guru Granth Sahib will have something of special value to say to the rest of the world.’ Arnold Toynbee- Historian “I have studied the scripture of great religions, but I do not find elsewhere the same power of appeal to the heart and mind as I find here in these volumes [of Sri Guru Granth Sahib]. There is something strangely modern about these scriptures. They speak to the people of any religion or of none. They speak for the human heart and the searching mind.” Mrs. Pearl S. Buck- Nobel Laureate In Volume five of the “It Is The Same Light” series (SGGS pages 801-1000), author Daljit Singh Jawa continues his humble effort to share the beauty of the SGGS with those who have limited familiarity with the language (Gurumukhi), history, or context. emphasizes that Granth Sahib is not for Sikhs alone, but has universal appeal. It enjoins upon anyone and everyone to live a life full of purpose. It also shows, how the authors of the Holy Book were well ahead of their times in matters of spirituality, psychology, philosophy, cosmology and human rights. It is a spiritual guide for those who wish to tread that path.

This is an English translation of Guru Nanak's famous Sri Japji Sahib which was originally written in Gurmukhi script. This is rightly regarded as one of the world's great spiritual classics. It is uplifting and universal in its message of love and devotion. This particular edition is in black and white with a beautifully illustrated design on each page. Includes a brief introduction by Professor David Christopher Lane, Ph.D. There is also a color edition available as well.

An important aspect of any Sikh religious service is the reading from the Guru Granth or taking Hukam Nama. The Guru Granth Sahib is a hefty tome of 1,430 pages. Sikh tradition is that from roughly the middle half of the Guru Granth, usually at the beginning of a randomly selected page (or the previous page if the hymn started there), one hymn is selected. This is read as the Hukam Nama or the Order of the Day. Clearly, many Sikhs living outside the Punjabi ambience would have great difficulty figuring out its meaning.

Contains 125 questions about Sikh religion. This book also features quotations from Guru Granth Sahib.

Brigadier Partap Singh Jaspal (Retd.) is a direct, intimate and lifelong disciple of Baba Nand Singh Ji Maharaj. He had the most blessed privilege of having Direct Darshans of Baba Nand Singh Ji Maharaj, of sitting at His Lotus Feet, of intimate personal talk and Service of the great Divinity, of Direct initiation by Baba Ji Himself into the realm of Divine Nam Daan and of tasting the Bliss of the House of Guru Nanak at His Lotus Feet. His father, Sardar Sahib Sardar Narinder Singh, IPS (Retd.), was a most highly decorated police officer for Gallantry in the country. He was a most devoted, a most close and intimate and most beloved disciple of Baba Nand Singh Ji Maharaj. Brigadier Partap Singh Jaspal's sole passion and ambition of life was and continues to be to share the precious treasure of divinity which he inherited directly from his Divine Master Baba Nand Singh Ji and from his most worshippable father Baba Narinder Singh Ji with all the children of the sole Beloved Lord. This labour of love, a tribute at the lotus Feet of supreme Divinity, founder of the Sikh Religion, Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji, is a natural outcome of this passion.

The Book of the Ten Masters is the record of the teachers of the Sikhs. The history of human civilization took a new turn when the Sikh Gurus appeared on the scene of Medieval India. The Sikh movement served as a light-house for the people groping in the dark. They were then changed men and elevated to the stage of the ideal man i.e. Gurmukh.
