How filling life with play-whether soccer or lawn mowing, counting sheep or tossing Angry Birds -- forges a new path for creativity and joy in our impatient age Life is boring: filled with meetings and traffic, errands and emails. Nothing we'd ever call fun. But what if we've gotten fun wrong? In Play Anything, visionary game designer and philosopher Ian Bogost shows how we can overcome our daily anxiety; transforming the boring, ordinary world around us into one of endless, playful possibilities. The key to this playful mindset lies in discovering the secret truth of fun and games. Play Anything, reveals that games appeal to us not because they are fun, but because they set limitations. Soccer wouldn't be soccer if it wasn't composed of two teams of eleven players using only their feet, heads, and torsos to get a ball into a goal; Tetris wouldn't be Tetris without falling pieces in characteristic shapes. Such rules seem needless, arbitrary, and difficult. Yet it is the limitations that make games enjoyable, just like it's the hard things in life that give it meaning. Play is what happens when we accept these limitations, narrow our focus, and, consequently, have fun. Which is also how to live a good life. Manipulating a soccer ball into a goal is no different than treating ordinary circumstances- like grocery shopping, lawn mowing, and making PowerPoints-as sources for meaning and joy. We can "play anything" by filling our days with attention and discipline, devotion and love for the world as it really is, beyond our desires and fears. Ranging from Internet culture to moral philosophy, ancient poetry to modern consumerism, Bogost shows us how today's chaotic world can only be tamed-and enjoyed-when we first impose boundaries on ourselves.

What else would you expect from a Snorlax? There's nothing better than finding a nice, soft grassy spot in a beautiful green field and just napping the hours away. I'm starting to yawn just thinking about it...Sometimes I get in the way because I fall asleep in the wrong places. I've been known to block off entire roads because I fell asleep in the middle of the street. I'm a pretty big Pokmon, so I can really be quite a nuisance. I'm a pretty heavy sleeper too -- once I'm asleep, it's not easy to wake me up again. The longest I've ever slept was one full week. That was a great week -- so relaxing! When I'm not sleeping you can usually find me eating. Like I said, I'm a large Pokmon, so I need to eat a lot to keep my energy up. I'm as big as a living room sofa, and I eat more in one day than a normal Pokmon eats in a month! But if I had to choose between eating and sleeping, sleeping is definitely my favorite thing to do, by far. If I had to give up one of the two forever, I could never give up sleeping. I could sleep all day and all night, if my parents would let me...
